Dear (Insert name letter is addressed to)

(Short greeting in your own words)

I am writing you, because I have an opportunity to go to Guatemala Central America and participate on a construction team for a new mission base outpost with Paradise Bound Ministries. Paradise Bound is in the final construction phase and this new mission base will open up more incredible opportunities for them and their teams to reach the poor and oppressed in Guatemala. Paradise Bound has been working in Guatemala for 11 years and have established a ministry building and giving homes to those living in cornstalk shelters and conducting Mobile Medical Clinic/Outreaches in remote villages. Almost 500 homes have been built, donated, and dedicated to date and nearly 70,000 patients have come through their clinics. But the most exciting part is that thousand have accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior through Paradise Bound and the teams from the U.S. that work alongside them.

As a member on the construction team I will work directly with Paradise Bound staff in construction (insert type of construction or chosen team if you like) (Insert date of your trip). The cost for this is only the price of the airline ticket, about $350 to $418. Apart from the construction, the team will also conduct a mobile medical clinic and outreach in a remote village while I am there.

These are just a few ways you can help; Please pray for me and the team as this is the most important thing you can do for me. Pray especially for the clinic/outreach night as we go deep into the heart of Guatemala. Also, if you feel led to help financially to support either part of my airline ticket, or more importantly the additional costs that Paradise Bound will have in construction materials, food, transportation, and medicine for the clinic/outreach during my stay with them. Paradise Bound is only charging the airfare, but have asked participants to raise additional support as they are equipped so the costs of their materials and experience is covered. Though not mandatory, Paradise Bound is asking that each team member raise an additional $500 toward these costs. I would deeply appreciate your prayers and if possible your financial help. To find more information on Paradise Bound, you can visit www.paradisebound.org or I will be glad to answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for considering my letter and being a part of this experience with me.

Sincerely,
(insert your name and sign)
